3. Kaufman asked to have two back issues of a Confidential SOVA publication sent to him. Arrangements to deliver these publications to JEC offices have been made.

4. On an earlier trip to HQs, Kaufman had complained about lax security procedures employed in the delivery of classified CIA materials to JEC offices. When asked if he had noticed any improvement since lodging his complaint, he replied that he had seen no further instances of poor security practices.

5. No problems arose during the course of this briefing, and Kaufman appeared entirely satisfied with the treatment he was accorded.
